Facts and Cost

WHAT?

The 2023 Little Indians Pow Wow is an informal gathering meant to be a fun time for members to meet each other, display their cars and swap stories about these special vehicles. There will be a popular vote with trophies and a special award for longest distance driven.

WHERE?

Our gathering will be at Summit Motorsports Park in Norwalk, Ohio and will be held during the Ames Performance Pontiac Nationals.

There is no official host hotel. Each attendee should make his/her own reservations at one of the many Sandusky/Milan hotels.

WHEN?

Thursday night, July 20, will be an “early bird” Tempest cruise to the Wonder Bar restaurant for dinner. Tempests roll out of the Quality Inn hotel parking lot at 5:30 pm.

The Ames swap meet and time trials open on Friday, July 21. If you are racing, the track opens on Friday July 21, for vendor set-up and test and tune for the racers.

All are invited to gather for a fun, casual BBQ picnic on Friday evening at the Veterans Memorial Park not far from Summit Motorsports Park (see cost below). Our popular vote car show will be held on Saturday, July 22, with an awards ceremony at 4:00 pm.

WHO?

Little Indians invite all 1961-1963 Tempest and LeMans stock as well as modified cars to join us. If you are not a member of the Little Indians Chapter of POCl, you are still welcome and while we hope that you will consider joining our chapter, membership is not required to join our show, or our catered Friday evening BBQ.

COST?

All Little Indian Members may attend our show at no cost, but will be required to register and pay the Ames Performance event entry/contestant fee. Non-Little Indian members will be charged a $5 fee to enter our “show within a show”. Please see the attached Ames event flyer for complete list of entry fees.

The Little Indians Dinner Cruise is to the Wonder Bar restaurant in Milan. There is no fee. Each attendee orders from the menu and pays his/her own bill.

The Little Indians Friday evening BBQ is $25 for adults and $15 for children under 12.

Menu for the BBQ:

Pulled Pork with Buns, Fried Chicken, Baked Beans, Potato Salad, Coleslaw, Fruit Salad, Tossed Salad, Non-Alcoholic Beverages, Chips and Cake.

EVENT FACTS

Ames has a buffet dinner on Saturday evening which is free and included in your entrance fees. During the mornings, they generally have a cart driving around offering free coffee and donuts, or you can visit the hospitality tent with your event pass. There are also many vendors for food, Pontiac parts, clothing, etc. and the largest Pontiac swap meet in the country, should you be looking for those elusive parts for your car. You will receive wrist bands which allow you to come and go from the track for the weekend and you will need to visit AMES VIP to get your hospitality passes.
